MARY'S PUP. BY CHARLES DICKENS.

Mary had an English pup, Its anties were peculiar,
Its nose was black and turned straight up—
She called her doggie Julia, What made her name the puppy so? The question is too silly;
Twas that kind of a dog, you know,
She couldn't call it Willie.

The Official Transfers of Saturday as Recorded. Mr. J. F. Olmstead presents the following transactions in real estate in the District on Saturday, as re-Furted to him by the Recorder of Deeds:

THE MONEY MARKET. Wall Street Transactions-Latest Quote

tions in Stocks and Bonds. The weekly statement of the New York banks shows an expansion of nearly $5,500,000 in loans, a small increase in total reserve, and a decrease in surplus reserve of $1,097,025. The surplus reserve is now $6,826,900, against $3,431,350 in the corresponding week of last year. The following shows the precise changes in the averages during the week:

.Inc. 1,339,600 .Dec. 1,200,400 .Inc. 4,581,900 .Inc. 32,600 closing quotations for call loans were 4 to 4% per cent. Time loans were 3 to 414 per cent. The passage of the refunding bill in some shape is regarded as certain, and whether it is a 3 or 3½ per cent, bond is immaterial, so far as concerns operations upon the Stock Exchange. Either will drive $600,000,000 and more now invested in 5 and 6 per cent, bonds into other investments. Naturally, this will create a demand

As these advance the present holders of them will be likely to sell at least a part of them and capitalize the premium on them by putting the money into other securities which are good but are not widely known to be so, and which are, therefore, not selling at full prices. The advance which such a demand for this class of securities would cause would undoubtedly in turn induce sales of them by present holders, who would put the money into a still lower class of securities; and so the process of selling and rejuyesting would put the money into a still lower class of securities; and so the process of selling and reinvesting which would be begun on a large scale by Treasury refunding operations would in time extend to the whole list of securities and shares dealt in at the Stock Exchange. This at least has been the experience in past refunding operations of the Treasury. If the Treasury is to use any considerable part of the coin in the Treasury to buy maturing fives and sixes the money coming out of the Treasury would be a clear addition to that now in circulation, and this, too, while the amount of United States securities in the market, which it takes money either to hold or carry, is diminishing. Of course neither a 3 nor 3½ per cent, bond can be floated except on an easy money market, and it is a safe calculation that during refunding the large influence of the Treasury will be thrown in favor of easy money and low rates for loans.

The Stock Exchange markets were active and irreg-

the refunding operations:

The Stock Exchange markets were active and irregdar, closing somewhat lower than the day before. Operators are beginning to range themselves as bulls and bears. Keene is said to have sold out and wants lower prices. He has a considerable following. Van-A man knows what the "Charge of the lerbilt and Gould are said still to be bulls. The short The new fangled or many-sided mirrors interest has been largely increased, and a sharp upward turn may be looked for. In the meantime it is an excellent time for operators with small margins

In what respect is an ill-bred man like not on the grounds to keep out. The New York Sunday papers express themselves pon the situation as follows: The Tribune says: Except during the first half hour of business the rule of values in to-day's stock market was that of shrink-age- The opening was made with some apparent dash, and at prices that showed good recoveries from yes-terday's late decline. After that the values gradually settled down, but not without numerous fluctuations. The declines which this day's dealings show are less important in their amounts than in their character. Evidently confidence is easing with average holders of stocks, so that the rallies grow less important after each new decline. Yet it should not be forgotten that many stocks already show declines of 10 per cent, or more from the extreme high prices, and that some of the wealthings. dence.

Johnny came home from school the position to the present, "short" interest may result in a rapid and sharp advance.

The Herald says: Like medical practitioners who refuse to diagnose a disease until the symptoms have been clearly deveroped, both bulls and bears have been without opinion to-day as to whether the existing uncertainty in stock prices is to end in a further weakness or in a sudden recovery. Opinions upon this score are pretty evenly divided. While it is known that many of the great operators have sold out, and mean, if they can do so, to break prices to still lower figures, it is equally certain that their intention is constantly foiled by the sharp demand which springs up at every recession. Upon the whole the bears are having the pull upon the situation. Almost to a man the retail operators of the Board Room are bearish, as said before; many of the leaders have marketed their stocks, and the public (which, after all, controls the situation if they only knew it) are halting between two opinions. In this jumble it is a risky matter to venture upon prophing market and a further gradual wearing away of prices must ensue before a bull movement can be permanently established. That the latter will come in good time, and that the present decline will make it only the more stable when it does come, we have no reason to doubt. Meanwhile the stock market is feverish, irregular, and shaky. Strong prices and weak prices were made a dozen times to-day, with the weak ones predominating at the close. Except in a very few instances, the changes of values were unimportant. Like medical practitioners who refuse to diagnose a

The Graphic of Saturday evening had the following

The bear party in the stock market has recently been reinforced, it is said, by the accession to its numbers of Mr. Keene. It is claimed that the latter has within the past three days soid long stocks to the value of $9,000,000. It is asserted that Messrs. Gould and Sage are now the only mainstays of any consequence to the market, and that Mr. Gould is long of a line of various stocks, aggregating in number $9,000 shares, and that there is now a prospect of a great battle between the giants. The friends of Messrs. Vanderbilt and Mills say that these great capitalists are doing nothing at present in the market except to hold such securities as they propose to keep for investment. It is reported that Mr. Vanderbilt sold out his entire remaining interest in Western Union to Mr. Gould at about 110 some days since, and that Mr. Vanderbilt's friends have finally permanently retired from all interest in the telegraph property. In view of these changes in the positions of leading operators, a considerable number of conservative traders have temporarily withdrawn from the market, and will do nothing more on either side of the account until mattees become more settled and there is more unanimity among the leaders. The short interest in the general market is now certainly very large, which would seem to indicate that there is some danger in overselling; but this condition of affairs may suddenly change at any moment. Yesterday there was a large borrowing demand for all kinds of stocks, the deliveries were irregular, and Lake Shore, Northwest common and Canada Southern loaned flat or without interest.

The following from the Daily Indicator will interest the many holders of Pelican and Dives stocks in Washington:

On the 31st of December the Pelican and Dives Mining Company made its final payment for its property near Georgetown, Col., the total price being $600,000. It is a pleusing fact, notwithstanding the depression in mining affairs and the collapse of the "mining boom," that after this enterprise was taken hold of its syndicate paid this large sum out of the pockets of its own members, without adopting the usual plan of appealing to the public to purchase stock bonds or something else. In addition to the payment of the purchase money, the company has expended between $50,000 and $60,000 in permanent improvements. Colonel William Riley, from whom we obtain the above information, tells us that the mine is now in fine condition. Its past record shows it to be one of the very best in the State; and when its permanent character is taken into consideration, it is doubtful if it can be said to have a superior. If more companies would pursue the example set by the Pelican and Dives of paying for their mines, and adopt methods common with, legitimate enterprises, instead of hawking their stock or bonds among the people, it would be better for everybody concerned.

The following observations on the transactions in

The following observations on the transactions in the financial market Saturday, together with highest, owest, and closing stock quotations, are furnished by the banking-house of H. D. Cooke, jr., & Co., 1429 F street, Washington, D. C .:

The market opened very strong Saturday, and has en very irregular all day, the chief interest centered in Western Union, Lake Shore, St. Paul, and Lake Erie and Western, the latter very strong. Small bears have been buying; market closes very weak, particularly New York Central, though we cannot advise selling Vanderbilt's stocks short, and, at same time, think it better to delay buying. From all appearances the market is being raided by Keen. Altogether the future is doubtful.

KIDNEGEN is highly recommended and unsurpassed for WEAK or FOUL KID-NEYS, DROPSY, GRAVEL, BRIGHT'S DISEASE, LOSS OF ENERGY, NERVOUS DEBILITY, or any OBSTRUCTIONS arising from KIDNEY or BLADDER DIS-EASES; also for BLOOD AND KIDNEY POISONING in infected malarial sections. By the distillation of a FOREST LEAF with JUNIPER Berries and BARLEY MALT we have discovered KIDNEGEN, which acts specifically on the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, removing deposits in the bladder, and any straining, smarting, heat, or irritation of the water passages, giving them strength, vigor, and causing a healthy color and easy flow of urine. It can be taken at all times, in all climates, without injury to the system. Unlike any other preparation for Kidney difficulties, it has a very PLEASANT and AGREEABLE taste and flavor. It contains POSITIVE DIURETIC properties, and will NOT NAUSEATE. LADIES especially will like it, and GENTLEMEN will find KIDNEGEN the best Tonic Beverage, for its purposes, even used. wer used.

NOTICE.—Each label has the signature of LAWRENCE & MARTIN, and each bottle has a Government Revenue Stamp (with our name), which permits KIDNEGEN to be sold as a proprietary article (without license) by Druggists, Grocers, and other dealers everywhere.

If not found at your Druggist's or Grocer's, we will send a bottle and pamphlets prepaid to the nearest express-office to you. Price, $1, or six bottles for $5.
